ISLAND HOPPER VACATIONS

SAMOA

SAMOA

Halfway between Hawaii and New Zealand, the heart of Polynesia pulses with breathtaking scenery and rich history. Ancient traditions and age-old customs are woven into daily life, shaping a culture both vibrant and unique.

Samoa is made up of ten islands, with the primary ones being Upolu and Savai'i (the Big Island). Faleolo International Airport, the country's main entry point, lies on Upolu, 40 km west of Apia, the capital and main hub.

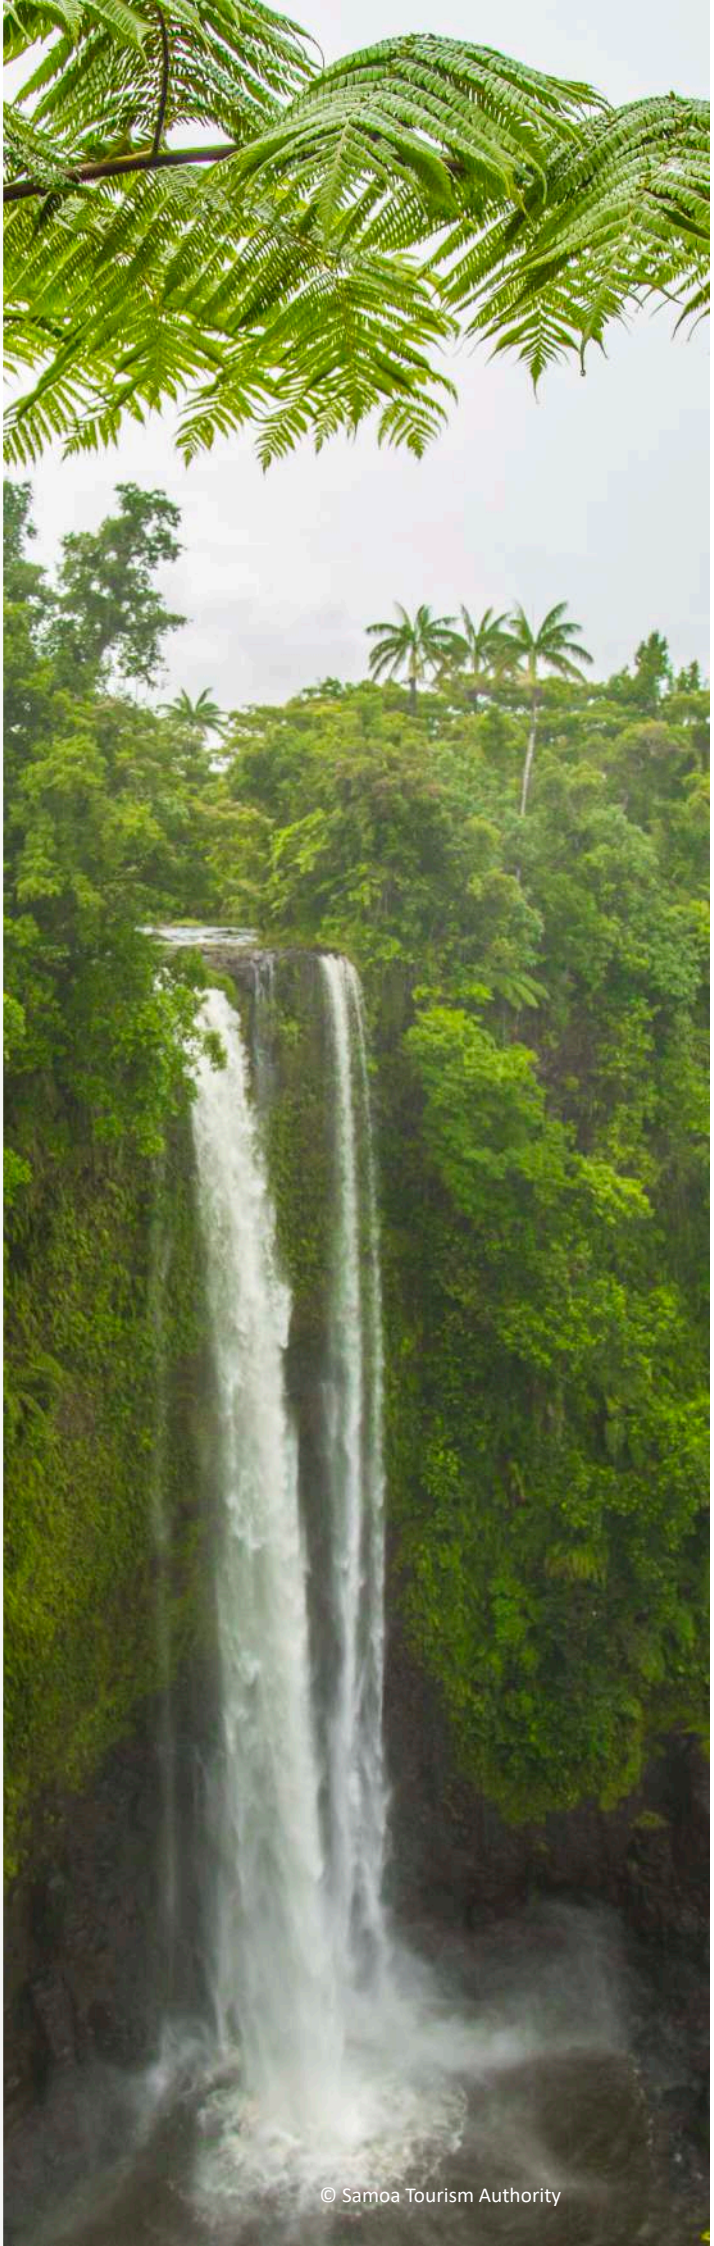

Samoa enjoys a year-round tropical climate, split into two seasons. The dry season runs from May to October, while the wet season spans November to April. Temperatures range from 25-32°C, with warm ocean waters in the low 20s.

Travellers to Samoa will uncover a pure paradise filled with cultural landmarks and outdoor adventures. Warm and welcoming locals love sharing their heritage and way of life, making for a truly memorable visit.

This brochure outlines 5 & 7-night stays on Upolu and 3 & 5-night stays on Savai'i. Each option includes a range of accommodations, which can be paired with rental cars or airport transfer services.

Upon arrival in Samoa, our knowledgeable local team will welcome you at the airport. You will receive a traditional flower ula (lei), a reusable aluminium water bottle, and a comprehensive itinerary briefing to ensure all aspects of your holiday package are in order.
