

DISCOVER SAMOA

- SAMOA -

Located in the heart of Polynesia, halfway between Hawaii and New Zealand, rests a land of extreme natural beauty, one with a fascinating history that is intricately weaved into its people through centuries-old customs and traditions.

Samoa consists of ten islands, with the two main islands being Upolu, and Savai'i also known as 'the big island'. Faleolo international airport and gateway into Samoa is located on Upolu; 40 km east of the airport is Samoa's capital and business hub, Apia.

The weather in Samoa is tropical all year round, with two seasons. The dry season runs from May to October and the wet season from November to April. The climate is hot and humid, with daily temperatures ranging from 25-32°C and ocean temperature in the low 20s.

For visitors to Samoa, the opportunities to discover and explore this pristine wonderland are endless. From the abundance of historical monuments and natural playgrounds, to the friendly locals who proudly share their rich, strong culture and simple way of life with you.

Samoa, is no doubt a destination that is sure to create beautiful experiences and embed lifelong memories.

Within this brochure, we provide you a collection of 3, 5 & 7-night packages for Upolu and Savai'i. Each package features a selection of accommodation choices bundled with guided tours and excursions, airport transfers, and the option to add on a rental car.

On arrival into Samoa, clients are met by our local professionals at the airport. Here they are presented with a fresh flower ula (lei), a chilled bottle of water, and an itinerary briefing to ensure all the details of their holiday package booked with us, are in order.
